- Four hundred horses are being trained for the North Korean Army at the Number 5 Farm in Musan-gun, which is at the foot of Paektu-san (N 42-00, E 128-03) (DB2150). This farm is under the jurisdiction of the North Korean Cabinet.<sup>1</sup> The number of workers at the farm is being reduced, as those who have been conscripted from other areas of North Korea are being transferred to various factories throughout the country. Some time during 1954 the farm will receive 80 holstein milk cows and 600 sheep from the USSR.
- Corn is the chief crop grown at the farm. In 1953 the harvest was very poor. In the same year much livestock died because of poor breeding, and for this reason four members of the staff of the Breeding Section were prosecuted for criminal neglect.

- Comment. Although the Number 5 Farm is under the jurisdiction of the North Korean Cabinet, it is referred to by local inhabitants as the Musan Farm.
